This notice is given by Berkeley Fifty Five Limited (Ref 10253), Berkeley House, 19 Portsmouth Road, Cobham, Surrey, KT11 1JG.

Notes for Leaseholders

Read this notice carefully. It sets out the amount of rent due from you and the date by which you must pay it. You are advised to seek help immediately, if you cannot pay, or dispute the amount. Those who can help you include a citizens' advice bureau, a housing advice centre, a law centre and a solicitor. Show this notice and a copy of your lease to whoever helps you.

The landlord may claim additional sums from you if you do not pay by the date specified in this notice. You have the right to challenge the reasonableness of any additional sums on application to a leasehold valuation tribunal.

Section 167 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002 and regulation under it prevent your landlord from exercising a right of re-entry or forfeiture for non-payment of rent, service charges or administration charges (or a combination of them) unless the unpaid amount is more than £350 or consists of, or includes, an amount that has been outstanding for more than three years.

Notes for Landlords

1. If you send this notice by post, address it to the leaseholder at the dwelling in respect of which the payment is due, unless he has notified you in writing of a different address in England and Wales at which he wishes to be given notices under section 166 of the Commonhold and Leasehold Reform Act 2002.

2. This date must not be either less than 30 days or more than 60 days after the day on which this notice is given or before that on which the leaseholder would have been liable to make the payment in accordance with the lease.

3. Include this statement only if the date for payment is not the same as the date determined in accordance with the lease.
