Your NHS number
Everyone registered with the NHS in England, Wales and the Isle of Man has a unique patient identifier called NHS Number.

Your NHS Number helps healthcare staff and service providers identify you correctly and match your details to your health records. This will ensure you receive safe and efficient care within the NHS.

For more information about the NHS Number, visit NHS Choices at www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

Use of NHS Services

Having an NHS Number does not mean you are automatically entitled to the free use of all NHS services.

For further information, visit NHS Choices at www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

If you cannot find your NHS number
You should be able to find your NHS Number on any letter or document you have from the NHS, including prescriptions, test results, and hospital referral or appointment letters.

If you cannot find your NHS Number, you can ask your GP Practice to help you. They should be able to provide the number as long as you are registered with them. For your privacy, you may be asked to show a passport, driving licence or some other proof of identity.

Welcome to the NHS

This information is designed to help you get the most from your NHS. Comprehensive information can be found on the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk.

Your NHS Services

Your GP practice and you

All GP practices should have a practice leaflet containing information to help you, such as surgery hours and the various services available to patients. Your practice may also have a website that provides information on its services. It may also provide information on the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

Emergencies and Urgent Care

In a life-threatening situation, you should call 999.

If the situation is urgent but not life-threatening, you can;

- Call your GP practice,
- Call NHS Direct on 111, which can provide non- urgent healthcare advice 24 hours a day, 365 days a year,
- Go to an NHS Walk-in Centre, Minor Injuries Unit, or other healthcare provider.

Information on local services is available from the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

Travelling within the UK

If you need to consult a GP whilst away from home you can approach a local GP practice. Information on local services is available from the NHS Choices website at www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

Healthcare abroad

If you're going abroad on holiday or a business trip, you should apply for a free European Health Insurance Card (EHIC), which may give you access to reduced-cost medical treatment. For more information, visit www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

Moving house

If you change your address

Tell your GP practice your new address as soon as you can. This is in case your GP practice has to write to you or visit you at home. If you have moved out of the area that your GP practice covers, you may need to change your GP practice.

If you go abroad for more than three months

If you are moving abroad on a permanent basis, you will no longer be entitled to medical treatment under normal NHS rules. You will have to notify your GP so that you and your family can be removed from the NHS register. For more information, visit www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

If you want to change your doctor

If you're not happy with the service at your existing GP practice, you can change to another practice in the area, in most cases. For further information on choosing a GP, visit www.nhs.uk/NHSEngland.

When you have selected a practice that meets your needs, you will usually need to fill out and sign a registration form and hand it to the practice. Be prepared to take along details of your previous doctor and your address.

You may go to your new practice for treatment as soon as they have accepted you.

Complaints

If you want to complain about the services of a GP practice, dentist, optician or pharmacist, you can contact the complaints manager at the practice. If your complaint is about hospital services, you can contact the hospital's complaints manager.

Dear Parent /Guardian

Re: Ada Erturk

We have no record of the above child's immunisations to date.

I would be very grateful if you could send details of your child's immunisations as soon as possible or contact the Practice Nurse at the surgery to discuss this.

Many thanks.

Yours sincerely
